

Reporter/Producer, Jets 360

Florham Park, NJ

Job Description:

The team is seeking an experienced reporter/producer to join the Jets 360 staff.

Responsibilities:

- Serve as an on-air host of Jets' television, website and social programming.
- Work behind the scenes as a producer, helping team continue to produce in-depth, documentary-style features.
- Write and maintain a blog that incorporates and complements the on-camera content.
- Conduct interviews with players, coaches, celebrities and alumni in-studio, at events, as well as pregame and postgame.
- Ability to edit video across multiple platforms.
- Maintain and utilize a social media presence to promote content and engage in conversation that highlights the organization in a positive manner.
- Develop ideas and scripts for both quick-hitting content and long-form features.
- Travel, weekend work and non-traditional hours are required.

Requirements:

- Two years of on-air experience, preferably related to sports. A background including live experience is preferred.
- Must be a team player, willing to work across all departments within the organization.
- Ability to work some nights and multiple weekends in the regular season and offseason.
- Job will often require desk work and applicant must be able to manage multiple projects.
- Must be well-versed in all areas of entertainment and communicate effectively with people inside and outside the football world.
- Editing using Avid software is a plus.
- Candidate must possess a deep knowledge of the Jets and the National Football League.

Work Samples:

Please submit a reel with on-air samples along with samples of writing and edited features.

How to Apply:

Interested applicants should complete an application and submit a cover letter and resume at the link below.

Position: Reporter/Producer, Jets 360

Department: Content

Fill out the application and upload your resume and cover letter here.